

CLIENT EXPERIENCE

Looking good for your customers

Our customer is a renowned Swiss institute serving leaders of industry. They need to look good. All the time. One of their most important vehicles is their website. Because of our reputation for quality and delivery, this customer trusted Itecor to manage the testing of their site. Itecor put in place an automated monitoring system to be sure that each page was available and had the correct content at all times. Today Itecor supports ongoing changes from our offices in Vevey and Skopje to ensure test coverage is optimised at a reasonable cost to our customer.
